

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Oppenheimer Treatment
FOR ALCOHOLISM

No Suffering. No Injection. No Detention from Business.

NO BAD AFTER EFFECTS.
ALCOHOLIC CRAVING OVERCOME IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.
ALL DRUG ADDICTIONS SUCCESSFULLY TREATED.

Indorsed by Many Prominent Men and Women Throughout the World.

Lady HENRY SOMERSET
of London, England,
Writes:

"I have carefully watched the cases which, during these past few months, passed under his care, and I am quite prepared to state that Dr. Oppenheimer has accomplished what he undertook to carry out. I frankly own that at first I was sceptical as to what the result would be. I had seen so many failures, and had hitherto little faith in such remedies; but from the first Dr. Oppenheimer maintained that what he would undertake to do was to kill the urgent desire and craving which a patient might have for stimulants, and that he would restore him to health."

REPRESENTATIVE PHYSICIANS in each city of the United States administer the Oppenheimer Treatment. Write for the name and address of the physician in your locality.

Roulette

The game that has made Monte Carlo famous, the game that has made and unmade modern fortunes, the game that has made and unmade Principalities, is so simple that any child can understand it. It has been played time out of mind by means of a wheel and a little ball, paraphernalia that, in the past, has never been dispensed with, and the game always has been surrounded by luxuriousness and glitter. Its Chances and Combinations have had mathematical minds in thrall for many years and they are still unsolved problems. For the student, this game offers an unlimited field for investigation, and for pleasure-lovers, an added thrill of excitement. For purely friendly occasions, no game of the departed centuries can be considered in the same class with it.

We have undertaken to give the Social Circle an opportunity of playing a delightful game by taking away from it its expensive feature of original, costly machinery and removing it from scenes of temptation and dissipation and placing it economically in the realm of Sociability.

Copyrighted 1905. Pat. applied for.

Roulette as a game of cards, played among friends and acquaintances for Social purposes, is fascinating, for the reason that the surprises in the action are equalled by no other game, and the results are far superior.

In the SALONS of the ELITE, Madame Du Barry's halcyon days will be repeated; for ROULETTE with cards will revive the glories of the French Court of her time.

Afternoon Roulette Card Parties

Will be the rage among the ladies this Winter, and, besides playing the regular game of Roulette with Cards, ROUND ROULETTE (which admits of as many as ten players at each table), will be quite fascinating.

If you cannot find ROULETTE CARDS at your Stationer's or Druggist's, we will mail you a pack, postage paid, on receipt of $1.00. We will also mail you our handsome Roulette Booklet, containing the only authentic portrait of the beautiful Madame Du Barry, on receipt of a two-cent stamp.

Roulette with Cards is the Greatest Game of the Century!

Preface

THE great success of the issue of "Club Women of New York" for 1904-1905 has given striking proof of the need for such a publication.

In consequence of the strong interest and valuable co-operation of prominent club women, the publishers have been enabled to make the present volume much more extended and complete than its predecessor, an increase of more than 3,000 names being added to the register.

The ever-augmenting interest in club life and its organization by women, together with the federation and intercommunication of clubs, renders the book a necessity both in the club and in the home.

With confidence, therefore, the publishers offer the present volume to its patrons.

Shape — the first requisite in Corsets. A Corset that destroys the wearer's personality takes away her most potent charm.

"La Grecque" Corset

gives that grace of individuality which is the Charm and Power of Womanhood.

Its long sweeping curves accentuate the waistline, give buoyancy and ease while yielding to every movement of the wearer.

The erect well-balanced poise of "La Grecque" adds a distinctive air that puts the wearer's figure above the commonplace.

THE ALUMNÆ ASSOCIATION OF RUTGERS FEMALE INSTITUTE AND COLLEGE,

New York City.

Although Rutgers Institute and College has long been but a name, her loyal daughters are united in an alumnæ association, perhaps the oldest of its kind in the country. The annual luncheon, held at the Waldorf-Astoria on January 6th, and the Founders' Day celebration of May 6th, are always well attended. On the second Monday of each month, the association holds its meetings at the home of Miss Catherine J. Pryer, 52 West Twenty-seventh Street, New York. Here interesting papers on the topics of the day, including those of national and civic importance, are read and discussed.

224 West Fifty-eighth Street, New York City.

The Art Workers' Club for Women was founded in 1898, and incorporated in 1901, by a few women painters and sculptors, for the purpose of mutual interest and support among women artists and models. The membership at present consists of 175 artists and 125 models. The club rooms are open on week days from 9 a. m. until 6 p. m., and on Sundays from 3 to 6 p. m. An entertainment is held each month, while lectures and musicales are given at intervals during the year.

AVON CLUB,

New York City.

The Avon Club was organized in 1894, and has for its object the study and analysis of the works of Shakespeare. A winter's work usually covers two or three plays, which are fully and comprehensively discussed, and papers are presented on the literature contemporary with the date of the play under consideration. Lectures are frequently given during the year by distinguished Shakespearian scholars, when guests are invited. Shakespeare's birthday is always fittingly commemorated. Meetings are held fortnightly, on Friday evenings, at the homes of members.

The Bedford Political Equality League was founded in 1894. Its object is to advance the legal, political, educational, and industrial status of womankind; to secure suffrage for them by state and national legislation, and by so doing to place women and men on an equal footing. Programme and social meetings are held by the League in Cooper Hall, at Bedford and Fulton avenues, on the first Thursday evening of each month, from October until May, inclusive. Business meetings occur on the third Monday of each month at the homes of members. The Bedford League is one of five composing the Kings County Political Equality League.

BROOKLYN WOMAN'S CLUB,

Y. M. C. A. Building, Schermerhorn Street and Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn.

The Brooklyn Woman's Club is independent of sect, party, and social cliques, the basis of membership being earnestness of purpose, love of truth, and a desire to promote the best interests of humanity. The club was organized in 1869, and incorporated in 1871. Its object is the improvement of its members, and the practical consideration of the important questions that grow out of the relations of the individual to society, and the effect of existing institutions upon individual development.

BROOKLYN BARNARD CLUB,

132 Remsen Street, Brooklyn.

The object of the Brooklyn Barnard Club, like that of the Barnard Club of New York, is to promote social intercourse among its members, and to further the interests of Barnard College—the only purpose outside the running expenses of the Club to which its funds may be applied. The Brooklyn Barnard Club was organized in March, 1896, and has both men and women members.

THE CALIFORNIA CLUB OF NEW YORK,
New York City.

The California Club is made up of women born in the State of California, those who have at some time made it their home, and daughters of native Californians.

The Society was formed to promote friendship, to discuss common interests and recollections, and to "keep alive the spirit of the Golden State on the Atlantic Coast."

Beginning with ten charter members the organization has become a permanent one, conducted according to parliamentary law, and its membership is rapidly increasing.

The headquarters of the club are at the Waldorf-Astoria, and are not only for the convenience of its members, but for the guidance and comfort of Californians visiting New York.

On September ninth, the annual meeting is held, and thereafter meetings occur on the fourth Wednesday afternoon of each month. An evening reception is given once every month.

The Cambridge Club meets on the third Monday of each month for the presentation and discussion of selected topics for study. The ruling sentiment is expressed by the club in the lines of Schiller:

"If thou hast something, bring thy goods,
A fair return be thine.
If thou art something, bring thy soul
And interchange with mine."

The club was organized in the year 1900, with the object of mental improvement. Membership is limited to fifty.

CHICAGO WOMEN'S CLUB
of
New York City.

The Chicago Woman's Club was organized April 26, 1904, in response to an invitation by Mrs. Caroline M. Brown, first President of the Chicago Woman's Club. Thirteen Chicago women thus invited formed the first meeting at the Hotel Martha Washington, and the interest of the afternoon centered chiefly in "Chicago, her enterprise and the ability of her women to accomplish great things." The Club was then organized on the lines of the Chicago Woman's Club.

"Its aim is to bring together members of the Chicago Woman's Club and other women who have lived in Chicago, and to keep alive the spirit of the parent club of Chicago, whose object is "Mutual sympathy and counsel, and united effort toward the higher civilization of humanity."

Regular meetings of the Club take place the first Saturday of each month at 2 p. m., from October to May, inclusive.

CHIROPEAN,

Brooklyn.

The name Chiropean was originated by Mrs. Bernard Peters. Every letter denotes a quality or an object which should be an inspiration to each member of the Club. The Chiropean Club of Brooklyn was organized in the Eastern District of that Borough for the purpose of bringing together intelligent women of the locality, with the view of making them helpful to each other and useful to society. Regular meetings of the club are held on the first and third Thursdays of every month, except June, July, August, and September. On the first Mondays the business meetings take place. Those held on third Mondays are social in character, and guests may be present. On the first and third Mondays in February anniversary exercises are held, during which newly elected officers are installed.

With a Princess or close-fitting gown, nothing will give such an elegant contour to the figure as the new boned corset cover and bust supporter known as the

De Bevoise Brassiére

made of the most durable fine batiste, lace trimmed and lightly boned.

Beautiful in shape, it pulls down snugly over the figure and fastens to the corset clasp by means of a straight-front tab eyletted, confining the bust without undue pressure to its proper place.

At the back, one side crosses over the other, and a tape fastened at the lower edge is brought around and tied in front. This insures a perfect fitting back, holding in the shoulder blades, and preventing the unsightly ridge of flesh over the top of the corset.

The whole effect is to accentuate a beautiful tapering waist and insure a trim figure.

Suited to all forms; especially designed for Stout Figures. Easily Laundered.

Sizes, 32 to 48 inches, bust measure.

Style No. 1904.—Fine Batiste, made plain for customers to sew on their own lace, if desired. Black or White .....$1.00 each

Style No. 1906.—Fine Batiste, edged with Torchon lace and one row of ribbon. Black or White..$1.00 each

Style No. 1909.—Extra fine Batiste, edged with Val. lace and 2 rows of ribbon and insertion. Black or White.$2.00 each

Style No. 1910.—Superfine Lotus cloth, edged with fine German Val. lace and two rows of ribbon and insertion. White only.....$3.00 each

Made extra long, price the same. Sizes 50 and larger, 50 cents each extra.

At all corset departments, or, if not procurable in your neighborhood we will supply you direct, postage prepaid, if you tell us the name of your dealer who does not keep them.

ENTERTAINMENT CLUB,
New York City.

The Entertainment Club, which is now in its second year, was organized for the purposes of doing honor to those who have done something for the good of their country, of coming into personal touch, and sympathy with them, and of stimulating progress in all lines.

It is the aim of the club to introduce at its meetings speakers representing some phase of national life, and to offer opportunities for undeveloped, but real talent to be heard.

The reunions, most of which so far, have taken place in the Astor Gallery of the Waldorf-Astoria, consist of an entertainment program followed by an informal reception.

Each member is entitled to a card for six entertainments during the year, no matter at what season he or she may join.

President,
MRS. ROSWELL T. HITCHCOCK.

First Vice-President,
MRS. J. FREDERICK PIERSON.

Second Vice-President,
MISS SABINA RUTHERFORD.

EUTERPE CLUB,

This society, which is mainly musical in its aims and work, meets on Fridays at Carnegie Hall. The four concerts which are given during the season at the Waldorf-Astoria are social events and are participated in by artists of high standing in the musical world. The club also gives twelve receptions at the homes of its members and twelve card parties.

The Regent

Tea Rooms, 45 West 20th Street

The perplexing problem—where to take luncheon while in New York—away from the rush and undesirable features of the restaurant, has been very satisfactorily answered by the establishment of The Regent Luncheon and Tea Rooms, located in the shopping center of New York, within a stone's throw of Fifth and Sixth avenues, Broadway or Twenty-third street. The Regent is admirably adapted for meeting one's friends and resting after the fatigue of shopping.

Luncheon served from 11 a. m. until 4 p. m.

THE MUNICIPAL ART SOCIETY OF NEW YORK,

National Arts Club, 37 and 39 West Thirty-fourth Street, New York City.

The aim and scope of the Municipal Art Society is to provide adequate sculptural and pictorial decorations for the public buildings and parks in the City of New York, and to promote in every way the beautifying of its streets and public places. It is believed that city pride would be thus stimulated, and that in interesting the people in their city, and making it more pleasant, more homelike, and more attractive to them, and to others, lies the most direct route toward civic betterment—material, political, and moral. The Society was organized in March, 1892, and incorporated in 1898. There are but three women officers.

NATIONAL SOCIETY OF DAUGHTERS OF FOUNDERS AND PATRIOTS,

New York Chapter.

Requirements for admission to the National Society of Daughters of Founders and Patriots are such that few women are eligible, and its New York Chapter has still but a small membership, although its organization took place in 1902. An applicant for admission must descend in the direct paternal line of either father or mother from an ancestor who settled in the colonies before the year 1637, and must have an intermediate ancestor who adhered as a patriot to the cause of the colonies in the Revolutionary War. The object of the society is to preserve the history of colonial and revolutionary times.

THE NINETEENTH CENTURY CLUB,

New York City.

The present membership of the Nineteenth Century Club is 106, of whom forty-six are women. The club was founded in the year 1883 by Mr. Courtlandt Palmer, for the purpose of furthering liberty of expression as to theories of politics, industry, science, art, philosophy, or religion; with the idea that by interchange and comparison of conflicting opinions a basis of agreement on important questions may some time be evolved. The general club receptions, of which there were six during the past year, were held at the rooms of the Aldine Club, and the three business meetings took place, one at the Aldine, and the others at the National Arts Club.

THE ORIGINAL WOMAN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB OF BROOKLYN,

Brooklyn.

Any woman who advocates Republican principles and is willing to adopt the constitution and by-laws of the Original Woman's Republican Club may become a member. The club was founded in 1893 by Mrs. Kate M. Bostwick, and is the pioneer political club of Brooklyn. Its object is to unite women in educational and social effort, to maintain Republican principles, to urge registration, and to render aid to the Republican committee during campaign seasons. The members meet on the first Tuesday in every month, from October until June, at the residence of Mrs. Catherine E. Marshall, 131 St. Felix Street, Brooklyn. Social and educational sessions are also held each month.

SOCIETY OF THE COLONIAL DAUGHTERS OF THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY,

Brooklyn.

The Society of the Colonial Daughters of the Seventeenth Century was instituted for the purpose of preserving the memory of the founders of the American Republic, as well as records of historical incidents during the first century of the nation's existence. Any woman descended from an ancestor who rendered service to the colony during the period of 1607-1699, is eligible for election to the society. The General Assembly is held on the first Tuesday in April. Business assemblies take place on the second Monday of October, December, and February. It is also a regulation that members of the society hold a celebration each year commemorative of some event in colonial history.

Sorosis enjoys the distinction of being the "Mother of Clubs," and the pioneer organization of women in New York City. Like that of all pioneers, the club's history is a record of hardships encountered, prejudices conquered, and difficulties overcome. The club was formed to "Render women helpful to each other; actively benevolent to the world; and to aid in promoting useful and agreeable relations between women of literary, artistic, and

THE OWEN SECRET BED

Solves the Cramped Quarters Question and adds an extra room to your home. It is a bed just as truly as it is a Davenport. Not a makeshift but a GENUINE Bed, made, taken care of and used just like any stationary Bed. The most artistic combination ever invented and gives nothing less than solid comfort, whether used as a Davenport or Bed.

The bed has separate springs, regular removable mattress and is made up in the morning, complete with all bed clothing, even to pillows, ready for use at night. It is no different from any stationary Bed and its use will do away with a bedroom.

The "Owen Secret Bed" is indispensable to those living in Apartment Houses or Hotels. Send for Catalogue.

TOWN AND COUNTRY CLUB,

12 East Twenty-second Street, New York City.

The Town and Country Club was established by Mrs. Florence C. Ives, November 1, 1895, and is designed to furnish a needed resting place in the shopping district for women who live uptown or in the suburbs, and to offer a New York home to those who live at a distance. It has no other aim than the comfort of its members. Monday is Club Day, and from November 1st to May 1st tea is served between four and five o'clock.

Manager,
MISS H. C. CARPENTER.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB,

Brooklyn.

The membership of the Twentieth Century Club, of Brooklyn, is composed of both women and men. The club was founded by Mrs. Mary J. Field in the year 1893, its object being the broad and free discussion of ideas and events, and the entertainment of prominent persons. There are six or eight meetings during the season, which are held at private houses, and are never reported. These meetings are of irregular occurrence, evenings being selected which allow the attendance of the distinguished speakers who it is desired should address the members. There are but two women officers.

President,
MRS. MARY J. FIELD.
Corresponding Secretary,
MISS MARY STORRS PACKARD,

VASSAR STUDENTS' AID SOCIETY,

New York City Branch.

Now in its fourteenth year, the Vassar Students' Aid Society is in a flourishing condition, with almost as many branches as it is years old. As the name indicates, the society exists primarily to aid women who are desirous of a Vassar College education. Its fund is devoted to this purpose, and loans are made to deserving persons. The Vassar Students' Aid Society has also its social side, and aims to sustain friendly relations between all who have ever been pupils of the college. Four social meetings are held during the season, the gathering place this year having been the University Women's Club House, 10 Gramercy Park. At the close of the season an entertainment is held at one of the large hotels.

WHEATON CLUB,
New York City.

The Wheaton Club is an alumnæ association of the pupils of Wheaton Seminary, at Norton, Mass. It was founded, in 1886, at the home of the president, Mrs. Clark, who has been the president ever since, and has done not a little to promote the interests of the seminary, as well as encourage the growth of the club. The Wheaton Club was organized with the purpose of meeting socially at an annual luncheon, but at the first luncheon so much literary talent was disclosed among the members that it was resolved to continue as a literary club, with three or four programme meetings each season. The club meets at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on the third Saturdays of November, January, and February. In March a business meeting is held.

President,
MRS. KATE UPSON CLARK.

Secretary,
MISS ETHEL M. MILLAR,
718 Madison Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Treasurer,
MISS MARGERY JERAULD LEWIS.

WINTER CLUB,

Brooklyn.

The basis of membership in the Winter Club is earnestness of purpose and a willingness to share the labors and duties of the club; to further its interests and widen its usefulness. The object of the club is to cultivate individual development by study and research, thus to obtain a wider knowledge and a fuller enjoyment and appreciation of the best in literature and art. Social, programme, and lecture meetings are held on the first, second, and third Fridays of each month, except in the months of November, January, March, and June, when the first Mondays are given to business meetings.

WOMEN'S HEALTH PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION,

New York City.

Its reason for being, as well as the nature of its work, is fully given in the name of the Women's Health Protective Association. Since its incorporation, in December, 1884, the association has labored without ceasing, to establish reforms tending toward more sanitary conditions in the city, and to its effort is due, among many other advances, the improved condition of the streets, the scientific manner of slaughtering meats, the enforcement of cleanliness in city stables, the abatement of the spitting nuisance, and the diminishing of poisonous gas-house odors. The association meets at the Academy of Medicine on alternate Tuesdays. It has no attractive social features to offer its members, but invites them to come in and help to keep the city clean and healthful, and its air and water pure.

Dear Madam: New York, Nov. 27, 1905.

I desire to call your kind attention to the new departure in Ladies' Coats and Suits.

These coats and suits can be worn for any occasion, where a light weight and comfortably warm garment is desired. They are made of genuine suede leather, in every color desirable. In beauty and attractiveness they excel anything of any other material. For driving, automobiling, opera and evening wear, they are the most desirable.

A visit to 22 West 33rd St. will present to you a delightful surprise.

Respectfully, E. BRANN,

POND'S EXTRACT of Hamamelis Virginica

has for sixty years been the standard extract of witch hazel, and to-day is more popular than ever both with the public and the Medical profession. This has entailed upon POND'S EXTRACT the inevitable penalty of fame:—

Imitation and Substitution

Neither of these, however, would be perilous to public health if unscrupulous manufacturers—swayed more by Profit than Principle—did not jeopardize the health and lives of the people by adulterating their common and unidentified witch hazels and offering them through wholesale and retail druggists and department stores as "the same thing" and "just as good" as POND'S EXTRACT.

Not content with marketing an inferior article these manufacturers reached the point at last—in their Greed of Gain of offering witch hazel fortified with Wood Alcohol (poison), or Formaldehyde (poison), or both, to the imminent peril of all who were deceived into buying and using it.

So rife have these pernicious conditions become that the State Legislatures of New York and Illinois have enacted laws which make it an offense punishable by heavy fine, or imprisonment, or both, to sell any medicinal extract containing Wood Alcohol (poison) or Formaldehyde (poison) unless the bottle containing same be labeled POISON, and other States throughout the Union are taking steps, one after another, to the same protective end.

In order, therefore, that the public may be secured against the danger of poisoning by the use of such witch hazels, we are impelled to publish the following

Caution

Witch Hazel is not "the same thing" as POND'S EXTRACT. On analysis of 70 samples of witch hazel, bought of leading wholesale and retail druggists and department stores, 52 contained Wood Alcohol (poison), or Formaldehyde (poison), or both, and not one of the other 18 was up to the required standard of strength. The peril of these poisons may be avoided by the exclusive use of

POND'S EXTRACT

IT COSTS MORE, BUT IT IS WORTH THE DIFFERENCE
